Policy: School Information on the School's Web Site

Lindow Community Primary School's web site can be found at <http://www.lindow.cheshire.sch.uk>.

Note: parental permission is sought for publication of any pictures or names of individual children.

Information published includes that required by The School Information (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2012, Schedule 4 (see below).

A paper copy of the information published on the website will be made available, without charge, to parents on request to the Headteacher.

The governing body will arrange for the information published on the website to be updated as soon as is reasonably practicable following a change to that information and, in any event, at least annually.

Schedule 4 of The School Information (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2012, Regulation 10.

Specified information to be published on a school's website:

1. The name, postal address and telephone number of the school, and the name of a person to whom enquiries should be addressed.
2. Either—
 - (a) the determined admission arrangements for the school in relation to each relevant age group at the school, including any arrangements for selection, any oversubscription criteria and an explanation of the process of applying for a school place; or
 - (b) information as to where and by what means parents may access that information in the local authority's composite prospectus published on their website.
3. Information as to where and by what means parents may access the most recent report about the school published by Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Education, Children's Services and Skills.
4. The school's most recent key stage 2 results, as published by the Secretary of State under the following column headings in the School Performance Tables published on the Department for Education's website:
 - (a) "% achieving Level 4 or above in English and Maths";
 - (b) "% making expected progress";
 - (c) in relation to English, "% achieving Level 5 or above"; and
 - (d) in relation to Maths, "% achieving Level 5 or above".
5. Information as to where and by what means parents may access the School Performance Tables published by the Secretary of State on the Department for Education's website.
6. The following information about the school curriculum—
 - (a) in relation to each academic year, the content of the curriculum followed by the school for each subject and details as to how additional information relating to the curriculum may be obtained;
 - (b) in relation to key stage 1, the names of any phonics or reading schemes in operation.

7. The measures determined by the Headteacher under section 89 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006 (determination by Headteacher of Behaviour policy).
8. The amount of the school's allocation from the Pupil Premium grant in respect of the current academic year; details of how it is intended that the allocation will be spent; details of how the previous academic year's allocation was spent, and the effect of this expenditure on the educational attainment of those pupils at the school in respect of whom grant funding was allocated.
9. The report prepared by the school under section 317(5)(a) of EA 1996 (duties of governing bodies in relation to special educational needs).
10. The school's charging and remissions policy determined by them under section 457 of EA 1996.
11. A statement of the school's ethos and values.
