Other good news...

Since March 2020, one of our most favourite rooms in our school, Booktropolis, wasn't able to be accessed by whole classes as it became part of our one-way system. We have been delighted to resume our timetabled weekly visits this week, meaning we can once again really foster a love of reading and celebrate it through this lovely, special space in our school. Here's Reception enjoying their first ever class visit!
